OF WILSON'S PLEAEmphasizes League to Prevent War As the Only Way to Keep Faith.

"This treaty was not intended merely to end this war; it was intended to prevent any similar war."

"I wonder if some of the opponents of the League of Nations have forgotten the promises we made our people before we went to that peace table. We had taken by processes of law the flower of our youth from every countryside, from every household, and we told those mothers and fathers and sisters and wives and sweethearts that we were taking those men to fight a war which would end business of that sort, and if we do not end it, if we do not do the best that human concert of action can do to end it, we are of all men the most unfaithful—the most unfaithful to the loving hearts who suffered in this war; the most unfaithful to those households bowed in grief, yet lifted with the feeling that the lad laid down his life for a great thing, among other things in order that other lads might not have to do the same thing."

"That is what the League of Nations is for, to end this war justly and it is . . . to serve notice on Governments which would contemplate the same things which Germany contemplated, that they will do it at their peril."

"The League of Nations is the only thing that can prevent the recurrence of this dreadful catastrophe and redeem our promises. And the character of the League is based upon the experience of this very war."

"Don't let them pull it down. Don't let them misrepresent it; don't let them lead this Nation away from the high purpose with which this war was inaugurated and fought."

"As I came through the line of youngsters in khaki a few minutes ago I felt that I could salute it because I had done the job in the way I promised them I would do it, and when this treaty is accepted men in khaki will not have to cross the seas again."

"Do you realize, my fellow citizens, that the whole world is waiting on America? The only country in the world that is trusted at this moment is the United States and they are waiting to see whether their trust is justified or not."

"That has been the ground of my impatience. I knew their trust was justified, but I begrudge the time that certain gentlemen oblige us to take in telling them so. We shall tell them so in a voice as authentic as any voice in history, and in the years to come men will be glad to remember that they had some part in the great struggle which brought this uncomparable consummation of the hopes of mankind."

Calling on opponents of the League of Nations to present a "better program" for peace, President Wilson in his speech at Indianapolis declared it is a case of "put up or shut up."

Mr. Allen formerly lived in this city, and was the first agent at the passenger depot for the "Texas" railroad. He thoroughly enjoyed his brief sojourn here, so he said, in meeting his good friends and being with his relatives.

The prohibition movement was born sword in hand and can never die in battle.

NAME YOUR FARM!

Passengers on the L. H. & St. L. railroad trains and the land travelers too are lastingly impressed as they pass through Webster and see G. N. Lyddan's name and the name of his farm "Park Place" painted in big clear letters on his barn. In passing a prosperous and fine looking farm like Mr. Lyddan's, the first thing folks want to know is the name of the owner; it is the farmer's trade-mark and gives his place a distinction from all other farms. Name your farm, print it in big letters and get in the lime-light.

REAL ESTATE TRANSACTIONS ARE
LIVELY IN CLOVERPORTProspects of the New Federal Highway and Government
Dam at Addison is Probably Making the Rush.

With the prospect for the early beginning of work on the Ohio River Federal Highway, and the building of Lock and Dam 43 at Addison, Ky., in the early spring, every vacant house in Cloverport is full, and many persons who want to take advantage of getting work on one or the other of these big undertakings are already buying lots here or preparing to build or buying already built property. Many farmers are taking advantage of the public schools also.

These are some of the real estate deals that have been transacted in the last week: J. H. Blythe has bought the J. E. Keith property on the Hill, also the big vacant lot lying on the Hill adjoining the Compton property. He also contemplates building a house for rent on the corner of the lot near Carl Overton's property.

LOVE HAS ITS WAY
IN SPITE OF H. C. L.Cupid Has Busy Week, And Lovers Having Knot Tied In Hoosier State.

Cupid has had an exceptionally busy time in Cloverport in the last few weeks. In spite of the H. C. L., and whatever else may hinder, the matrimonial fever has spread and love has had its way. Evidently there must be a delightful romance attached to having the knot tied before a magistrate and in the State of Indiana, for many of the couples seek it one after another.

Among the marriages recorded this week is that of Miss Mary Kinder and Mr. Earl Hobbs, which took place in Cannelton, Monday morning, September 15.

Mrs. Hobbs is the daughter of Mr. Hardin Kinder, and she was engaged as a clerk in Mr. S. L. Wheatley's store until Saturday. She is a young woman and has a large circle of friends.

Mr. Hobbs came to Cloverport several months ago from Vanceburg, Ky. He with Mrs. Hobbs are making their home with Mr. and Mrs. Kinder for the present.

Miss Wanda Carlyle and Mr. Joe Dawson were married in Rockport, Ind., Monday, September 8. After a short wedding trip to Louisville, Mr. and Mrs. Dawson returned to Cloverport where they are living with the bride's mother, Mrs. Rosa Carlyle.

Big Type Poland Chinas
The Farmer's Hog.

I raised the pig that won first in the Pig Club last year. I have them good enough to win again this year, if properly fitted, and they are priced worth the money too. These are the kind of pigs that go out and make good and please their owners.

In a few weeks I will be weaning some of the best pigs that I have ever raised. See them before you buy elsewhere. Here you get the pig you buy; no drawing for choice, no lottery. I sell hogs and satisfaction.

The sows of my herd come from three of the best hog-producing states of the Union. I have never let money stand between me and the hog I wanted to improve my herd.

I also have two males large enough for service from a litter of ten, choice individuals, for sale now.

The pork barrel is the end of the hog. I have the kind that fill it.

The sow pigs are all sold. Choice mail pigs for sale at weaning time.

WEDNESDAY SEPTEMBER 17, 1919

GIRLS, GIRLS, GIRLS.

Never have they been so much in demand. The phone companies cry for them. Corset makers sigh with longing. Clothing manufacturers tear their hair and offer cash prizes to every employee who brings another into the shop. One, like enterprising movie men, advertises his workshop at "twenty degrees cooler than the street." Generous vacations and free medical attendance are common inducements.

Yet the shortage continues.

A New York newspaper recently carried 53 solid columns of "Help Wanted—Female" ads. In another five columns called solely for stenographers.

Women have been prosperous during the war and they like to take vacations. They are also darned particular about the kind of work they do. These are two reasons for this summer's shortage.

More important, perhaps, is the return of the American Expeditionary Forces. Woman is a transient in industry, passing through it on her way to marriage. Since so many soldiers have returned more women have reached this ultimate destination.

Predictions were rife during the war that women would stay in industry, to the detriment of men's wages. Present conditions in New York City show that Nature can be trusted to stabilize employment conditions. Altruistic man joyously assumes the burden of woman's support, and like Barkis, she is always willin', even when operators of embroidery machines can make as much as $75 a week.—Commerce and Finance.

FRITTERING AWAY OUR TIME.

Rev. Frank B. Haggare, a Baptist minister, of Boston, attributes the delay of the Senate accepting the League of Nations to the empty heads in the Senatorial body. In an address before his congregation on "America and the Next War" Rev Haggart first prayed that our statesmen may not fritter away their time while grave dangers threaten our States, and then in his address he said:

"May we learn to apply the principles of Christianity to our social and international problems. America must either prevent the next war or engage in it. The time to choose is now. Some men are wise enough to be in the United States Senate who believe we can hide ourselves from the problems that beset the outer world. Others are not as sincere and have petty, selfish motives for their misguidance.

"As the people have long ago lost faith in Senatorial omniscience. The largest noises are made by the emptiest heads among our so-called statesmen."

This minister of the gospel might have added that there were some empty heads among the non-statesmen, who fritter away their time in unprofitable talk of those in higher power. The principles of Christianity are only best applied when we seek the divine guidance for ourselves and for those who are in power to keep us out of war.

Newspaper advertising is held to be largely responsible for the marketing of California's output of more than 3,000,000,000 oranges and lemons. The California Fruit Growers' Exchange handled 33,082 carloads of oranges and lemons which was the largest crop in the history of the State.

In the South where domestic help has always been available, the business men are now having to leave their offices to go home and help their wives with the house work. The colored men are making such high wages in the cotton fields that the negro women no longer have to work out.

We should like to have seen the names of more Breckinridge county farmers in the list of those who were awarded prizes at the State Fair. We have equally as good an opportunity for raising fine stock as other counties, and why not let other people see what we can do?

The Japanese are tackling the high cost of living. The Japan press says the troubles of their country are brought on by the intellectual classes and not the working classes. The press might better say that a certain class has been intelligently taught to profiteer.

"See, the Conquering Hero Comes" was the right music, for the right man, at the right time when it was played for Gen. Pershing as he came marching home and was greeted by millions of people in New York City, last Monday.

Let's make this the biggest and best Community Fair we have ever had in our county!

We have never yet heard any farmers complaining of high prices. They are rightly coming into their own after so long a time

Other sections of the State are suffering from a drouth so we are not the only people breathing dust.

FARM AND STOCK

Joseph Herrmann, overseer of the poor at Alton, Ill., says that by covering the legs of his cows with stockings at milking time he has increased his output one quart per day, per cow.

An Indiana business man keeps a swarm of bees in a hive in his downtown office, and last year got more than 50 pounds of honey. The hive is placed close to a radiator to keep the bees warm in winter, and is near a sunny window. In the Spring the bees are tempted from the hive by a row of chocolate creams set on the window sill, from where they can see the gardens getting bright with flowers.

The Loose Leaf Tobacco warehouse is looming up. The walls are about ready for the roof. This is one of the largest buildings in town and will be a bigger thing for the farmers when completed.

"It Must Have Been Dead at Least 6 Months But Didn't Smell."

"Saw a big rat in our cellar last Fall." Writes Mrs. Joanny, "and bought a 25c cake of RAT-SNAP, broke it up into small pieces. Last week while moving we came across the dead rat. Must have been dead six months, didn't smell. RAT-SNAP is wonderful." Three sizes, 25c, 50c, $1.00. Sold and guaranteed by E. A. Hardesty, Stephensport; Conrad Payne & Co., Cloverport; B. F. Beard & Co., Hardinsburg.

CARTER'S LANDING

Herman O'Bryan springs this one on Tom Carter. Some time ago he went to Benedict Elder's stayed all night, went down to Tom's early next morning to ride down with Tom in his swift steamer Red Aunt. They rolled in, started down the pike at a break neck speed of two knots an hour. Herman says, "Tom, how far is it to Cloverport from your place?" Tom scratched his head and says, "I don't know how far it is to town, but its just two miles to the post-office." Herman took such a spasm that Tom got so alarmed he side tracked at Felix Beavin's, hollowed to Felix to call up Dr. Charlie Lightfoot, the Bachelor Club's physician to come out to treat Herman. Felix got so excited that he tried to talk to Doc through the receiver instead of the transmitter. Doc says, "What's the matter here, this line of talk is coming in backward?" Felix says, "It don't matter how this talk is coming in this patient is in a serious condition." So it was Doc's time to get excited. He grabbed his pocket-hook instead of his medicine case, out he went into his machine and up the pike so fast all you could see of Doc was a string of blue smoke. When he arrived he examined Herman's heart, thought he might be in love, found his heart normal; examined his tongue to see if he was insured; after examining him with his X-ray found that his ticklish box was tilted to one side. After that was righted, the smelling salts applied, Herman came around. He may get over this, but he will never look well afterward.

Alton Mattingly is responsible for this: John F. Beavin went to Louisville with stock, took the popular river route and was gone for a week. Arrived in Cloverport late Saturday night, stayed all night with his son-in-law, Hewitt Dowell. Went to church Sunday morning, started up the street and when he got opposite the wharf boat he ducked for the river. Alton says, "John you are not

Don't you think you could make a good guess at the real cause of the visit?"

—(o)—

If there is anybody on the run here Marshall Brown ought to get 'em for the Police Court has been as dead as a mackerel for six months.

—(o)—

"Picked Up" Items.

Alf Taylor, Rosetta's popular merchant is growing fat and laying up something for a rainy day out of his business. He is not only a successful merchant but a good farmer and trader. Alf deserves all the success he is getting out of this life.

—(o)—

Cliff Pile is another substantial farmer and Democrat of Duncan's Valley. He is about as well fixed in the way of this world's goods as any man we know of. He likes for the candidates to come around and it is his delight to entertain them. Judge Board, J. E. Monarch, J. S. DeJarnette and the News man spent a delightful night with him last week.

—(o)—

Lonnie Glasscock over in the Forks has a beautiful home and farm. It is well improved, is under a high state of cultivation and produces equal to any of the river bottom farms. Lonnie is always at home to his friends. He and Carl Richardson were old school-mates and he is taking a lively interest in Carl's election.

going back to spend another week are you?" "No," says John, "I'm going down to the wharf to see Bill Pate, the wharf master, to find out whether I've got back or not." Alton disappeared around the corner.

R. C. Carter, an old soldier and a member of the Bachelor's Club, has decided to enlist for life. He announced his engagement last week. Instead of killing Huns he is now killing time on the Police force, Washington, D. C. He has been one of the President's escorts three different times since he has been on the force. We knew that hoy would go down in history, by gum.

Now will you bachelors sit up and take notice! Rich says he would never have got married in the world if he had not been a member of the club.

 Yet she had her fun, I think.

She was modest and sweet and full of sense,
 And happy and cheerful, and more—
 She was the kind of a girl your mother was
 In the golden days of yore.

We miss her so much in these modern times,
 And her place will never be filled
 By the drinking girl and the smoking girl,
 In all of the new fads skilled.

She was gifted, oh, with a gracious sense
 Of the proper and noble and high;
 And she laughed and sang in her sunny way
 And could look any man in the eye.

We want her back for a little while,
 Her charm and her skill and grace;
 Her gentle voice and her lovely smile
 And her bright and sunny face.

The kind of a girl that your mother was,
 Who bore in her stainless breast
 Only the thought of the highest things
 And the purest and the best.

The real girl and not the sham,
 The girl that would not care
 To court the notice of vulgar eyes
 With her frivolous, flaunting air.

The kind of a girl who was full of life
 And a gumption, too—
 The girl that your father made his wife,
 And that nursed and cuddled you.

OLD AGE STARTS WITH YOUR KIDNEYS

Science says that old age begins with weakened kidneys and digestive organs. This being true, it is easy to believe that by keeping the kidneys and digestive organs cleaned and in proper working order old age can be deferred and life prolonged far beyond that enjoyed by the average person.

For over 200 years GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil has been relieving the weaknesses and disability due to advancing years. It is a standard old-time home remedy and needs no introduction. GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil is inclosed in odorless, tasteless capsules containing about 5 drops each. Take them as you would a pill, with a small swallow of water. The oil stimulates the kidney action and enables the organs to throw off the poisons which cause premature old age. New life and strength increase as you continue the treatment. When completely restored continue taking a capsule or two each day. GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules will keep you in health and vigor and prevent a return of the disease. Do not wait until old age or disease have settled down for good. Go to your druggist and get a box of GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules. Money refunded if they do not help you. Three sizes. But remember to ask for the original imported GOLD MEDAL brand. In sealed packages.

LEXINGTON MAN GIVES REASONS FOR HIS BELIEF

Johnson Thinks Benefits Gained Justify Glowing Tribute Paid Trutona.

Lexington, Ky., Sept. 16. "Because of relief I've gained I feel that I'm justified in saying that Trutona gave me more benefits than any other medicine I've ever taken," Russell Johnson, 66 years old, a retired furniture dealer and well known Lexington resident of 505 South Lime Stone street, said recently.

"For many years I've been troubled with constipation," he continued. "I had taken laxatives constantly. I would become so dizzy at times that I could hardly get around. I was nervous and restless at night—so bad I couldn't sleep. Headaches bothered me constantly.

"The relief I've gained in Trutona has caused me to hope that others will try the new medicine and become convinced as I have. My bowels act with clocklike regularity now; I don't experience the dizzy spells any more and my appetite is much better than before. I'm glad to recommend Trutona."

Mr. Johnson has voiced the opinion of thousands of people who have tried Trutona and found the perfect tonic to be unsurpassed as a reconstructive agency as well as a most successful combatant of stomach, liver and bowel troubles, nervousness, sleeplessness, and the like.

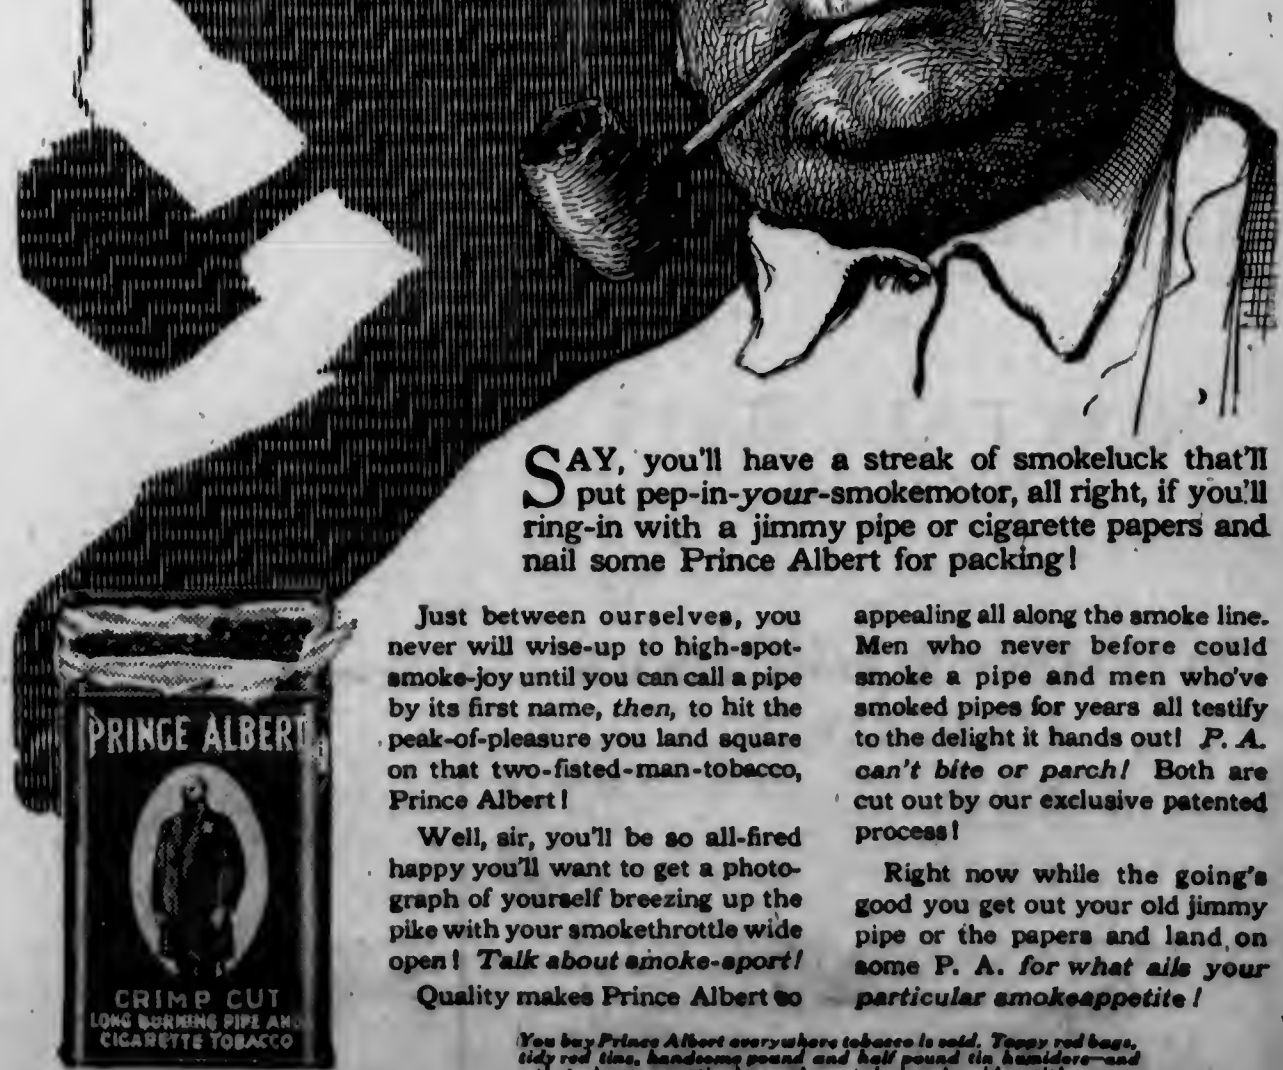

Trutona is now being introduced and explained in Cloverport at, Wedding's Drug Store; in Hardinsburg at F. S. Kincheloe's Drug Store, and in Irvington at Park's Pharmacy.

Several from here attended the soldiers' reunion at W. F. Smiley's given in honor of his son, Pvt. Leon Smiley, who has just returned from overseas.

The all day service at Fair View, Sunday was enjoyed by all. The crowd began to assemble about 9 o'clock from all parts of the county. Some in buggies, wagons, autos, horse back, and on foot until the crowd numbered about 500. A fine dinner was spread under the little grove which was enjoyed by all. After dinner the soldiers entertained the crowd out on the lawn, by pulling off some of their army stunts.

Old Soldier Testifies to Wonderful Merits Number 40 in Constipation, Stomach Trouble and Catarrh

National Home, Wis., May 12, 1919 "When I commenced taking Number 40 For The Blood, I was suffering with chronic constipation of a good many years standing, which finally developed into stomach trouble which got so bad I was unable to eat anything that did not cause great suffering. I tried a good many doctors as well as everything I could hear of that was recommended for my complaint. I was also troubled with catarrh of long standing and I had dropsical swellings in my feet and ankles which the doctors said was caused by a weak heart. I had about given up hope of being much better when I saw an ad. of your No. 40 in a country paper and concluded to try it. I felt so much better after taking one bottle that I sent direct to you for three more bottles. I have taken about two and a half bottles and while not feeling entirely well, I feel by continuing the use of No. 40, I will get to feel as well as I could reasonably expect for a man of my age, 73 years. I hardly know how to estimate the value of the benefit I have already received from the use of No. 40, and cheerfully recommend it to any one suffering as I was." Morris Law, Witness to signature, Nelson H. Pease. No. 40 is a combination of the best alternations selected from the best prescriptions received and compounded by J. C. Mendenhall, Evansville, Ind., 40 years a druggist. Sold at Wedding's Drug Store, Cloverport, Ky.

LASTILE

A roofing that adds the virtues of asphalt to the virtues of slate

spark proof

can be laid over practically any old roof

requires no painting or repairs

SLATE is not affected by exposure. Asphalt is long wearing and water-proof. In Carey Lastile Roofing we combine these two materials and thus produce a sheet having the utmost durability and water-proof qualities.

The upper side of Lastile Roofing is composed of a layer of natural red or green crushed slate. This not only makes a very beautiful roof but it takes the wear. Underneath this layer of crushed slate is a layer of asphalt gum. The slate is embedded in this asphalt permanently. Underneath this layer of asphalt is a heavy sheet of the best grade of woolfelt, thoroughly saturated and water-proofed with asphalt. This sheet alone provides far more resistance than most roofs even without the extra layer of asphalt and the crushed slate.

Carey Lastile Roofing wears year after year, presents a most attractive appearance, requires no paint at any time and is so spark-proof that it is endorsed by the Underwriters. The first cost is but little more than that of ordinary roofings and it costs no more to apply.

It is adapted for use on residences, factories, barns, garages and is frequently used as a siding in addition to being used as a roofing. Come and see it or write us for a sample.
